Three Torrance Bankers Attend Annual Breakfast

James W. Post, Sam Levy and Charles T. Rippe represented the Torrance National Bank at the annual Independent Bankers Breakfast, which was a feature of the second day of the California Bankers Association Convention meeting at Coronado.

Post is president of the local bank. Levy and Rippe are members of the Board of Directors.

More than 150 bankers were in attendance at the breakfast, which was presided over by the president of the Southern California Independent Bankers Association, William C. Neary, vice president of the Union Bank & Trust Co. of Los Angeles. Principal speaker at the breakfast was Neil Nettleship of San Diego, nationally known insurance executive.

Mrs. Charrion; Room 142; Thursday 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Those interested in attending these classes may register with their instructors.

First Lutherans To Celebrate Pentecost Today

Today is Pentecost Sunday, which is celebrated 50 days after Easter.

It commemorates the day the Holy Spirit was poured out upon the apostles.

On that day also, 3000 people were won for the Christian church and the Christian faith. First Lutheran Church will commemorate this event with special services this morning. Pastor Paul Wenske will preach on the theme "What the Power of the Holy Spirit Does, 1—For the Pastor, and 2—For the Congregation."

There will be two regular worship services, namely, at 9 and 10:45, with Sunday school during both services. New members will be received at the 10:45 worship service.

El Camino Plans British Operetta For Spring Show

El Camino College will treat the community to a different kind of musical entertainment when they present as their spring show "The Pirates of Penzance" on May 28, 29, and 30 at Redondo Union High School auditorium.

Included in the cast is a talented local girl, Mrs. Dorothy Dallas, a part-time student at the college, who has previous experience in radio and television. Last year she appeared in the college production of "Finian's Rainbow." In "The Pirates of Penzance" she plays the part of Mabel. In March, Mrs. Dallas sang one of Carmen's arias in a production featuring the college orchestra in a special concert.

Other members of the cast are: Ed. Suddmak, who plays the part of Frederick; Scott Young, the Major General Stanley; Gay Kleimneshagen, Ruth; Virginia Linn, Edith; Mudge Kuhn, Kate; Harold Barnett, Pirate King; Larry Herin, Samuel, lieutenant to the king; and Marsh Howard, sergeant of police.

Scott Young, playing the Major-General Stanley, had the lead in the college fall play "The Hasty Heart," last year. He graduated from Inglewood High School in 1947, where he took part in school productions. Later he played in a stock company, a little theater group, and did radio acting and announcing while in the Marines.

Samuel, the lieutenant to the king, is the role assumed by Larry Herin. He is a full-time student and is currently studying voice and sings in the college A Cappella choir. He is a member of the Gamma Mu Gamma Music Club.

Harold Barnett, playing the Pirate King, was also in the fall play, in which he played the role of the colonel.

The character of Ruth, a 47-year-old nurse, is the part in which Gay Kleimneshagen has been cast. She is a full-time student from Inglewood. In high school Gay had a role in the play "Dear Ruth" and has had other stage experience in similar productions.

Faculty Directors Hamilton Maddaford, R. Neil Hill, Burnett Ferguson, and Dr. Gordon Orme, said the other cast members have similar backgrounds. Students taking part in the event are members of the college Production Workshop and the college community chorus. Maddaford said. A chorus of 40 voices will be used, as well as other instrumental groups and the orchestra.

"The choice of 'The Pirates of Penzance' is the realization of a long-time aim of the college to bring shows of greater musical content to the community audiences," Maddaford said. "Eventually the college hopes to produce both a musical comedy and an operetta each year to give the participants experience in each medium. This year's production is an intentional departure from the pattern of past years which have seen the performance of several musical comedies."

The selection of a Gilbert and Sullivan production came coincidentally with the British film production on the lives of the two men scheduled for release soon.

THS Girl's Glee Motors to L.A. Song Festival

Approximately 50 members of the Torrance High School Girls Glee Club motored to Manual Arts High School Friday afternoon to participate in a festival sponsored by the Southern California Vocal Association.

Taking part in the festival were 14 glee clubs from the Greater Los Angeles area. Under the direction of Walter Slike, the glee club sang "Love Has Come My Way," "Lonesome Road," and "Glorious Apollo."

The judges scored the club on singing and appearance.

Seek Horsemen To Form Torrance Mounted Police

Twenty-five local residents with high-class horses and equipment are being sought by the Torrance Police Department to form the Torrance Mounted Police Reserve, a group that will ride in different parades and reviews in the local area, according to Sgt. D. C. Cook, juvenile officer, who originated the idea for the Mounted Police.

Sgt. Cook said that a group of interested citizens will have their horses and equipment judged for entry into the Mounted Police this morning at 10 o'clock at the Stock Auction yard at 3745 W. 190th St., just opposite the General Petroleum gate.

The Mounted Police should be available for parades by the 23rd of June, Sgt. Cook said. The group will be limited to 25 members and will have the same status as the Torrance Police Reserve Officers group.

Judging the applicants this morning will be Cook, Al Giansevres, and Al La Pan, auctioneer and stock owner at the 190th St. grounds.

All applicants will be screened, and all must conform to high standards in their equine equipment. One of the applicants under consideration, Andy Alexander, is said to have the second best parade horse in the state.

4 Generations of Grimms See Great Grandma Graduate

One of the proudest mothers who will attend graduation exercises at El Camino College on June 19 is a great, great grandmother who will see her daughter graduate.

The daughter, Mrs. Victoria Sadie Grimm, a 63-year-old great grandmother, said her 85-year-old mother, Mrs. Belle Hamilton, would be in the graduation day audience as will members of five generations of her family, down to one-year-old Thomas James III, her great-grandchild, James III, her great-grandchild.

The graduating great grandmother, Mrs. Grimm, is an English major at the college and, according to her instructors, is an extremely eager and capable student. She hopes to go on with her education this fall, either at Long Beach State college or at UCLA.

"I tremble at the thought of going to UCLA," she said. "I'm afraid, I couldn't keep up with them."

Her instructors at El Camino and her grade-point average indicate she will be able to more than hold her own. One of her instructors who has had her in class for Modern Literature and for Music Appreciation said, "She has a grand enthusiasm for study and for going to school; she's a welcome addition to any class."

While enthusiastically displaying her great grandson Tommy, Thomas James III, to admiring secretaries, instructors, and other students of the college, Mrs. Grimm said the thing that impressed her most about going to school today is "the fact that an adult can get an education and at the same time sit with young people and be treated as an equal."

That she must feel like an equal may be underlined by her diligence in filling out an attendance card for the college on registration day. Under the instructions, "If you are under 21 years of age, you must give the following information," she filled in every space, including the name of her mother.

'Threat of Peace' Pastor's Subject

The effects of a war economy on the lives and livelihoods of many Americans will be discussed by the Rev. Cecil J. England, pastor of the First Christian Church this Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. service, when he will speak on the subject "The Threat of Peace."

Sunday evening at 7:30, the Fellowship Forum Club will meet in the YWCA building to listen to Speaker John Howard, president of Palos Verdes College. Walt Levy will preside as president of the club, and a social hour will follow the meeting.

Rotarians Hear Louis Zamperini

One of Torrance High School's greatest all-time track stars, Louis Zamperini, who set the national high school record for the mile which still stands, spoke before the Torrance Rotary Club meeting Thursday night at the Woman's Club.

Zamperini, a former Torrance Herald carrier boy, spoke on his experiences as a flier in World War II, and about his ordeal after a crash, when he was adrift on the ocean for 47 days.

Several miles from the THS track team were invited to the meeting to hear the great athlete. While at Torrance High Zamperini ran the mile in 4:21.2.
